GETTING THERE

Ivory Wilderness Riversong Camp is located about 2 hours' drive from Hoedspruit, which is a popular little safari town in Limpopo and known as the gateway to the Kruger Park. The local Eastgate Airport is about 1.5 hours drive from camp and operates flights in and out of Hoedspruit daily. Self-driving guests can travel from Johannesburg, which is a scenic +6 hour drive. Driving directions are as follows:

From Hoedspruit

From Hoedspruit, take the R40 in a southerly direction towards White River and travel for 6km before turning left at the sign for Timbavati/Eastgate Airport. Continue through the control gates and drive for 18.8km until you reach Enkhulu Gate, sign in and take an immediate left (less than 20m), cross over cattle grid, and turn right to follow the road. After 4.1km, enter Incheni Gate (R140 fee) and continue 13.4km until turning right at a cellphone tower. Drive 7.7km until junction; turn left to Klaseriemont Dundee East; continue 7.4km; turn left at sign for Dundee South East; continue 5km to a sign for Ivory Wilderness Riversong Camp, and turn right here. The camp is 500m along the road.

From Johannesburg

From Johannesburg/Pretoria continue on to the N4 Highway. Continue to follow N4 for 191 km. Take the exit toward R33. Continue onto R540 from Belfast to Dullstroom. Turn left onto R36, travelling through Lydenburg, Ohrigstad, and through the Strydom Tunnel towards Hoedspruit. The R36 becomes the R527 and takes you right into Hoedspruit at the T-junction with the R40. Turn right on the R40 towards White River and continue for 6km before turning left at the sign for Timbavati/Eastgate Airport.

Please note: The road can take up to 2 hours from Hoedspruit, depending on wildlife and road condition once entering the reserve (dirt roads from here on out). Game-viewing begins once in the reserve, so keep your eyes peeled for wildlife, and please be aware of potentially dangerous animals on/near the road. We strongly advise our guests not to follow GPS, and rather to follow our directions and map, as GPS will be misleading.
