TRAILS OF BOTSWANA

PARTICIPATING CAMPS:

XOBEGA ISLAND CAMP

Xobega, or Gcobega, is a secluded, tree-filled island in the waters of the Okavango. Only accessible by boat, this piece of Delta paradise is an adventurer's dream, best suited to groups of friends, or families looking for a unique, and truly tranquil Botswana nature experience. One may call it 'glamping' when considering the spacious Meru-style tents with stretcher beds and solar-powered lighting, while bucket showers and eco-toilets keep things refreshingly low-key. Located among the trees are the dining tent, two lounge gazebos, and a boma.

TUSKERS BUSH CAMP

Tuskers Bush Camp lies between Nxai Pan National Park to the east and Moremi Game Reserve to the west. It encompasses 365 000 hectares of mopane forest and scrub, plus the northern tip of the Botswana Kalahari, making this exclusive tract of land ideal for game drives and walking safaris. 6 Meru-style canvas safari tents are located between the evergreen mopane trees, looking out into the veld and offering guests seclusion and privacy during their stay. The main dining tent, boma, bar, and swimming pool overlook a bustling waterhole.

CAMP LINYANTI

Camp Linyanti should be visited by anyone passionate about raw Africa and favours safari quality over luxury accommodation. This uncrowded north-western corner of Chobe National Park is a water wonderland and appeals to visitors eager to get involved with boating activities, as well as game drives. The accommodation at Camp Linyanti sings of traditional safari, blending in with the environment and keeping things simple, yet elegant. There are 5 individual canvas tents, elevated slightly from the ground with stairs leading onto private wooden decks, and up to the interior of these unique, circular tents.

CAMP SAVUTI

Camp Savuti epitomises the Botswana safari experience. From the abundant game viewing to the authentic, tented accommodation, this is the traditional way to spend time in one of Africa's most superb wildlife regions. 5 authentic canvas tents are subtly hidden among the bush willows, raised on wooden stilts and offering ensuite facilities and outdoor showers. Wooden verandas offer views of the Savuti Channel.
